

Position: Transportation Engineer May 2012 Internship

Consistently ranked by Engineering News Record, as a Top 500 Design Firm, Baxter & Woodman is a leader in providing municipal engineering. A variety of civil engineering services is offered to public sector clients such as municipalities, county governments, and state agencies. More than one-third of the firm's revenue comes from transportation engineering.

Baxter & Woodman has a rewarding internship for a transportation engineer starting May, 2012. This on-the-job experience will support the firm's transportation department with the planning and design of a variety of transportation facilities, and offer the opportunity to work directly with firm clients.

A variety of responsibilities/duties will provide you with a well-rounded background in transportation engineering. Duties may include:

- Plan Review
- CAD
- Quantity Computation
- Plan Preparation
- Traffic Analysis
- Data Collection
- Survey
- Construction Inspection

Candidates must meet the following requirements:

- Ongoing pursuit of a 4-year degree in Civil Engineering with an emphasis in transportation engineering
- Maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.5/4.0
- Available to start May, 2012
- Ability to travel throughout Chicago area (own transportation)
- Work in a team environment
- Strong written, verbal, computer and organizational skills

The ideal candidate will participate in a university accredited co-operative engineering internship program with employment in alternate semesters for a minimum of 3 work terms.

Office Location:

Baxter & Woodman, Inc.

8678 Ridgefield Road

Crystal Lake, Illinois 60012

Forward your resume to Jobs@baxterwoodman.com

E/O/E M/F Smoke-Free Drug-Free